If the user contacts any of the member entities of DRAXTON through the contact information provided in the Web (e-mail, postal address, telephone), the user agrees to the processing of his personal data by the subsidiary to which he has addressed, in which case, the latter shall be responsible for processing his personal data in accordance with the applicable regulation of the country in which it is located. The information of the subsidiary companies are duly detailed on the Web. Users shall take this into account when exercising their rights of access, rectification, cancellation and opposition when addressed directly to a group company through these means.

Personal Data Collected

You can browse the Web without providing personal data, however, there are certain sections within the Web where You can voluntarily provide data such as: name, address, email, telephone and other identifying information. For example, when you communicate with us to request information about our group companies, request information about our products, when you register as a supplier, to send us your comments or suggestions, or when you wish to be considered for a position in one of our companies.

Certain features and accesses on the Web are reserved for registered users only, for example, the "Suppliers' Portal". There are usernames and passwords for registered users of this portal, which are assigned by our Information Technology department. These data are used only to allow access to registered users (suppliers) and to customize the functions of the Web.

How Do We Use Your Personal Data?

The personal data you decide to share with us through the Web, shall be used to identify and contact you, as well as to include you in our databases and send you information that we consider may be of your interest.

On the other hand, if You are a supplier or you wish to be one, there are specific conditions for the processing of your personal data, which shall be informed to you before collecting your personal data, through the corresponding Privacy Notice.

The personal data you provide shall be kept for the time necessary to fulfill the purposes described herein.

Security Measures/Limits to Access

DRAXTON has adopted the necessary technical, administrative and physical security measures to ensure the integrity and confidentiality of your personal data and to prevent its damage, loss, alteration, destruction or unauthorized use, access or processing, however, it is clear that no data transmission over the Internet is completely secure and, therefore, DRAXTON cannot guarantee that the processing of personal data will be free from any damage, loss, alteration, destruction or unauthorized use, access or processing.

Only authorized personnel, who have fulfilled and observed the corresponding confidentiality requirements, may participate in the processing of your personal data.

How Do We Share Personal Data?

DRAXTON does not sell, assign or transfer personal data to third parties that are not related to DRAXTON, without the previous consent of the data subject.

THE COMPANY will transfer your personal data to competent governmental authorities, either national or foreign, to comply with any legal requirement or provision and with the purposes described in this Privacy Notice.

Other than the cases provided for in this Privacy Notice, THE COMPANY shall not share or transfer your personal data to third parties, except in the cases provided for in Article 37 of the Federal Law for the Protection of Personal Data in Possession of Private Parties or any other applicable legislation or regulation.

Links

The Web may contain, for your convenience, links to other websites. Please note that this Privacy Notice applies only to the Web and not to the webs of other companies or organizations to which the Web is redirected. DRAXTON has not reviewed the Privacy Notices of said websites and therefore does not guarantee or take responsibility for the content of those links. We encourage you to read carefully the Privacy Notice of each of the sites linked from this Web.

Minors

The services and information available on the Web are intended for people over 18 years old.

Third Party Data

In the event that the user provides personal data of third parties, the user guarantees to have obtained their prior consent and to have previously informed them of the conditions and purposes for which DRAXTON shall use their personal data. If DRAXTON requires it, the user shall evidence to have obtained said consent.

Quality of the Data

The data provided by the user shall be accurate and truthful. In every case, it is the user's obligation to notify DRAXTON of any modification of his data in order to keep them updated at all times.
